Allstate confirmed that they were supposed to notify you and arrange a time. Did they drop it at the address you provided - [REDACTED]

I spoke with driver. He said co part told him to drop it. Now if anything is missing they can blame driver. These are the shady games we were speaking about. So they dropped off this vehicle at a property we dont own based on arrangements that were not followed. They blocked this persons driveway without permission and did everything with no authorization or inspection.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

I just spoke to Allstate and they are going to attempt to contact Co-Part on their end.

I know it will be same address we gave allstate before. Its in rural nearby. I cannot think offhand what the address is. [REDACTED] is at second job so will not respond promptly. She will most likely give her number which allstate also has from crash report.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED] and Ms. [REDACTED] I am sending this to both of you in connection with release of the vehicle for efficiency. Co-Part, where the vehicle is currently held, will deliver the vehicle back to the owner. What I need from you is a phone number and address where the vehicle should be delivered. That number will then be contacted directly by Co-Part to arrange a drop-off date at the provided address.

Please provide the phone number and address that [REDACTED] would like to use to arrange drop-off. Thank you.
